

Helpful Hint:

Lay out all of your teaching lessons, materials and manipulatives you will need for the next day (in the order you need them) before you leave school for the day. That way when you get to school in the morning you are ready to teach! It becomes especially helpful on those mornings when you are running late or your coffee just isn't kicking in quick enough. :)

