

How to Be a Cat

By Nikki McClure

This awesome book is a wonderful way to practice locomotor and nonlocomotor movements through play. Each page has unique illustrations with movement words such as pounce, stalk, tumble, stretch, and so many others. My kids love when I get this book out and I love watching their imaginations come to life while they show “How to Be a Cat”.