

I Promise by LeBron James and Nina Mata
Used with older, intermediate students

- Teach page turn chant; could be changed into a melody (use every few pages as you see fit)

- Read the story with students chanting the page turn pattern; add clapping while speaking
- Show/play/echo 8-beat ta ti-ti patterns, show them examples of the single ti
- Take the slide page and create an example word chain following the elemental form patterns
- Model for them how you will say and play your pattern
- Small groups create together their pattern (two ideas make AB, etc.)
 - Students can use body percussion and/or unpitched percussion
- Use page turn chant/melody to set up the “final performance”
 - Create a BIG ABA performance
 - BIG A: say/sing the page turn pattern, BIG B: student group performance, back to BIG A to then set up the next group performance
